IMPORTANT PLEASE READ:

Hello Valued Traveler,

First off, I want to apologize for the delay. We have had difficulties getting confirmations and pricing from several vendors. In their defense, staffing continues to be a big issue moving forward. At this time we are still requiring masks. We were looking for an adjustment to the CDC recommendations in March but they did extend their mask recommendation on all forms of public transportation (both public and private) so we will abide for the time being. We will continue to monitor the numbers and new information available to keep our policy relevant with our customers safety in mind. So, there are a bunch of new trips but because of the delay we still have more trips coming very soon. We could even have another list of trips as early as next week so be sure to check your email often. Don't forget to share and forward your email with the list of trips to any of your friends that may be interested. What could be more fun than doing your favorite trips, with your favorite tour company,
