IMPORTANT PLEASE READ:

Hello Valued Traveler,

With the Holidays right around the corner it's about that time for more time with family and friends. We hope you'll find some time to spend with us and your friends on one of our many trips. Becky wants to thank all of you that made it on her B-Day trip. She couldn't be happier to meet so many of you in person that she's only been able to speak to over the phone before that trip. Thank you to everyone who could make it. Both Becky and us here at TTT greatly appreciate it.

While we have some extra space, I want to remind everyone to please join our email list. We have no plans to resume sending out the mass mailer to all our customers. Between pricing and not being able to get updates out to everyone fast enough, it only makes sense to continue using email and website as the best way to get our trips out to all our travelers. Please invite your friends to join as well. If you're having fun on the tours, it will only be that much more fun with your friends. You can either forward this email to them or instruct them to go to www.traveltreasuresandtours.com/subscribe/ and fill out the form. The link is also found under the deals tab on our website.

If you are already receiving this brochure through your email you're already on the right track. The only other thing you can do more to get the latest information on trips and other things is to make sure to allow notifications. This is the little red bell in the bottom right corner. When you do this, you will get alerts on your phone or email to let you know of any new updates. This includes when we put out a new listing of trips. That way you can be sure to find out about our new trips as soon as they come out.

Thank you everyone for such a great year. It's been great to finally have our first full year back since the pandemic. We couldn't be more thankful for all of you that made it possible. We look forward to seeing everyone on more trips in the future
