18385 Dix-Toledo Hwy, Brownstown, MI 48193

Hello Valued Traveler,

As Memorial Day weekend approaches, we're reminded not only of the unofficial start to summer but also of the importance of taking time to relax, reflect, and make new memories with the people who matter most. At Travel Treasures and Tours, we're ready to help you do just that—with a full lineup of exciting trips and new adventures waiting just around the corner.

There's something extra special about traveling this time of year—blue skies, warm breezes, and longer days just make everything better. Whether you're looking for a peaceful scenic getaway, a laugh-filled dinner show, or a fun day at the casino, our tours are designed to help you make the most of the season. And don't forget: the only thing better than going on a trip is bringing someone along to enjoy it with you! Share this newsletter with your family and friends—after all, the best memories are made together.

This week's highlights include the always-relaxing Frankenmuth Boat Cruise, the laugh-out-loud Turkeyville Dinner Show coming this July, and a final call for our Mid-Michigan Tour—this is your last chance to book it before it's gone! From local gems to out-of-town adventures, there's something for everyone this summer.

Here's to the season ahead—filled with sunshine, celebration, and unforgettable journeys!
